

I. PREFACE – The Spirit of Divination

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Ephesians 6:12

A black cloud seemed to be hovering, trying to engulf me, yet I knew angels were around me, and Jesus was singing songs of deliverance for me. Emotional and physical pain was increasing at a rapid rate. The enemy was coming in like a flood. Often my eyes filled with tears as I cried out to God, “What is it, God?”

I often went to the mountain to pray, just as Jesus had. (Mark 6:46). One particular time, I invited several prayer warriors to join me. After extensive time in prayer and fellowship, I approached the open window to shut out the cool evening breeze. Suddenly, out of seemingly nowhere, I was hit in the face by something of hard iron. I screamed, “JESUS! JESUS! OH JESUS, please help me” as I fell to the floor. Two remaining warriors ran to me, praying. An Amish wagon wheel hanging on the wall had fallen. The axle hit my forehead, broke my nose and gave me two black eyes. The injury was ruled a concussion.

When praying about this incident, the Lord gave me the verse from Ezekiel 3:9, “Like adamant stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.”

Six months later, I awoke early while on a trip out of the country. I stepped into the shower and within minutes I found myself pitching forward. My hip hit the metal ridge of the sliding door and the top of my head hit the shower wall. Once again, I screamed, “JESUS! JESUS! OH JESUS, please help me.” The injury was ruled a concussion.

It was then I spent some serious time with Jesus. I must know why these two incidents happened! The Holy Spirit said, “You are under the power of the spirit of divination.” What?! Wow! I began to scan through my life analyzing where that spirit gained access to my life. What did it mean to be under the power of the spirit of divination? Isn’t that witchcraft? Exactly it was. Ignorantly, I had come into agreement with those who had taken oaths not only against Christ, but for Lucifer. I, myself, had unknowingly taken an oath to deny Christ when I joined a community organization.

I realized that I must break off agreements with those who had taken these oaths and resign from the organization. I will expand on this more later in this book.

The very fact that I had ignorantly walked into Satan's line of fire caused me to want to know more. How many others must be making agreements with Lucifer or against Christ and not be aware?

I began to research the origins behind organizations that are antichrist. Often their members are not aware. I knew these groups were in Jerusalem when Jesus was here because the beloved Apostle John wrote in 1 John 2:18, Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour.

I knew that taking on this assignment to expose the works of darkness as commanded in Ephesians 5:11 would be direct spiritual warfare. I stepped away from the assignment for several months to seek God and ensure this was in fact something I was called to do. The confirmation was solid.

I was to start speaking via podcasts, and I was to write a book. The Lord told me it would be entitled, "Not of this World." I wasn't sure what the exact content would be, but December 2022 the Lord gave me the following for the book description.

Timothy instructs us as soldiers. He said, "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." (2 Timothy 2:3-4)

Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world." (John 18:36)
"I have given them thy word, and the world hath hateth them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world." (John 17:14)

As we near the end of the age, darkness in the physical world is increasing. However, for those who are living and walking as spiritual soldiers, The Light is shining brighter as all things hidden are being revealed.

Warriors of the light are not of this world. Walking in the Spirit is the life support to enduring to the end.

This book presents a contrast of the physical and the spiritual realms with the Word as the lamp. Come, join the Army of the Lord, be a warrior for the true light, and separate from this world that will soon pass away.

I felt compelled to take what would be my third trip to Israel to do specific research on the “unholy” sites. February, 2023, the trip became a reality, and I had a schedule of places of unholy sites I wanted to visit.

After being in Israel for a few days, I was walking across a parking lot and suddenly something fell and hit me on top of the head. I staggered to sit down and realized the arm of a gate came down struck me. I knew this third blow to the head was a sign that I was under direct attack from the enemy, but I also sensed a revelation was coming. The Satanic attack was confirmed as I learned the Circle of Freemasonry in Eilat, Israel was directly in line with the parking lot. Another concussion was ruled.

One week later while in Tiberias, the Lord awakened me at 2:30 AM to show me a rare, unscheduled crescent blood moon over the Sea of Galilee. He gave me a very distinct word and warning for the church. Could the enemy have been trying to take me out before the word of the Lord came to me? Or could he have been trying to scare me from going forth with this very important word? Whatever the reason, I am more compelled to write what the Lord is saying to the church today than I ever have been.
